Information

In early spring of 1953, voluntary workers were hired in Sensburg (R 54/A 27) for construction work on an airfield near Rastenburg (R 55/A 29). As the number of volunteers was not large enough, personnel from factories and administrative offices were detached to Rastenburg in the spring of 1953. When coming home for leave the workers stated that they worked at Rastenburg airfield.
